

4-H RULES

1. The 4-H Competition is open to registered 4-H members in good standing aged 6 - 21 inclusively (as of January 1st, 2023). Children aged 8 and under who are not registered with 4-H for the 2023 year but who would like to participate, may be entered in the new Cloverbud showmanship class, for non-members.
*Peewee Contestants (aged 6-8 on January 1st) may participate in the Peewee Showmanship class and in the 4-H conformation classes as long as they:
A. are a paid registered member of 4-H. B. have a calf to show which is not already being shown in 4-H.
C. register the calf in the appropriate conformation class. D. show the calf independently.

Please read Section 9 regarding Showmanship age groups for more information on non-members who would like to participate in showmanship.

2. Registration for the Calf Classes must be made prior to June 1st, 2023. A fee of $10/head will be charged on all animals registered after the closing date. The deadline for late registration is 7 p.m., Friday, June 9th at the Fair office. Absolutely no late registrations will be accepted on the morning of the show.
ONLY THOSE ENTRIES MADE BY THE DEADLINE OF JUNE 1st WILL APPEAR IN THE 4-H PROGRAM.
3. The Assist Expo form must include all the necessary information (including ATQ site number and identification number of animal). All calves taking part in the 4-H competition must conform to the same health rules and regulations as in the Open Cattle Show Competition. All small animals taking part in the 4-H competition must conform to the same health rules and regulations as in the Small Animals Competition. The animal entered for exhibition must be the animal exhibited. All calves must be tagged, or they will not be permitted on the grounds. If an animal is found without their tags, the exhibitor will be held liable for any infractions.
4. On Friday, June 9th, from 6pm -7pm EACH participant must register at the 4-H table located at the 4-H barn and are required to bring their calf's pedigree for verification. At this time, they will pick up judging cards, their hat for the competition on Saturday, and meal vouchers.
5. For the judging competition, any participant deemed to be conferring or talking at any time in the course of the Judging classes will have their number noted and will be penalized accordingly.
6. NEW: Small Animal Classes will be held on Friday, June 9th at 4 p.m.
7. Dairy Classes will begin on Saturday, June 10th at 8:00 am, in conjunction with the open show.
8. Attire: For sections 3 – 13, each contestant should be dressed in white.
9. The 4-H Committee, whose decision will be final, will resolve any dispute involving the rules.
10. Alcohol is absolutely prohibited in the 4-H barn.
11. Participants agree that by registering for the 4-H show, they grant permission to LBA, Expo Ormstown to use any photos taken at the show for publicity or other purposes deemed appropriate by the Expo Ormstown Committee.
12. With the exception of the Cloverbud Showmanship class, only participants and authorized personnel will be admitted to the show ring.
13. If you need any supplies of hay, straw or shavings during the fair please place your order with Assist Expo.
14. In the interest of promoting the agricultural aspect of the fair, $10 will be awarded to all 4-H exhibitors whose calves remain in the 4-H barn until Sunday afternoon at 4:00pm.
15. Please note: After each class, the trophies will be presented to the class winner and photos will be taken in the arena. Trophies will stay in the arena.
