Scones

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup raisins
- 6 tablespoons cold butter – cut into small pieces
- ½ cup + 2 tablespoons cream
- 1 egg

Preheat oven to 400° F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.

Place dry ingredients in a bowl and whisk together to combine. Add the butter and work into the flour mixture by rubbing together with your hands. Mix just until the largest butter pieces are the size of peas. Add raisins. In a measuring cup, whisk together the cream and egg, then pour this mixture into the flour mixture and combine just until the dough is moistened. Turn out onto work surface and knead a few times to make a smooth, but still slightly rough, dough. Divide dough into 2 parts and on a lightly floured work surface, roll each one into a 6-inch circle.

Brush top of each circle with cream and coat with white sugar.

Cut or mark each circle into 5 wedges. Arrange on baking sheet. Place in oven and turn heat down to 375° and bake until deep golden – approx. 20 mins.
